STRATEGIC OBJECTIVE #4

(Management of Productive, Life-Sustaining Natural Resources Strengthened)

More off-grid power Lead partners of the Alliance for Mindanao Off-grid Renewable Energy (Amore) program reaffirmed their commitment to sustain programs to provide electricity to 200 remote barangays, mainly in the Autonomous Region in Muslim Mindanao (ARMM) with the signing of the joint declaration of principles of alliance under the Amore program. The agreement is signed among Energy Secretary Raphael Lotilla, center, and, from left, Amore acting chief of party Chris Kopp for the project's implementing non-profit organization, Winrock International; ARMM Manila liaison office chief Moslemin Bansuan; USAID-Philippines mission director Jon Lindborg and Mirant Philippines Foundation president and chairman Edgardo Bautista.
